

SAGASTA CALLED TO POWER. LIBERAL LEADER IS PREMIER ASKED BY THE QUEEN REGENT TO FORM A NEW SPANISH CABINET.

FROM RECALL OF GENERAL WEYLER FROM CUBA REPORTED—MARSHAL BLANCO TO SUCCEED HIM.

Madrid, Oct. 2.—Señor Sagasta, the Liberal leader, has been intrusted by the Queen Regent with the task of forming a new Cabinet, in succession to the Azcarra Ministry, which resigned on Wednesday last.

Señor Sagasta, after leaving the Queen Regent, had a long conference with the Marquis Vaca de Armlgo, who accepts the Presidency of the Chamber.

Admiral Bermejo becomes Minister of Marine, in succession to Admiral Bermejo.

The financial question is demanding the greatest attention of all politicians, and the Liberals will, at the outset of the coming session of Parliament, frankly expose the position of the Spanish Treasury.

Marshal Blanco, it is stated, will in all probability accept the post of Governor-General of Cuba in succession to General Weyler.

London, Oct. 2.—A dispatch received here from Madrid to-day says that General Weyler has been recalled from Cuba. His successor, it is added, has not yet been officially announced.

Señor Praxedes Mateo Sagasta, the Spanish statesman and leader of the Liberal party, who has been called upon, as expected, to form a new Cabinet for Spain, was born in 1827. He is an engineer by profession, and was elected to the Cortes in 1854, as a Constituent Member. He took part in the insurrection of 1856, and eventually sought refuge in France. When amnesty was proclaimed, Señor Sagasta returned to Spain and became a professor in the School of Engineers at Madrid. He also edited "La Iberia," the principal organ of the Progressist party. After the insurrection of 1856 he again sought refuge in France, and did not return to Spain until after the fall of Queen Isabella.

He was appointed Minister of the Interior in the first Cabinet formed by General Prim and gradually modified his views, becoming more conservative, until he broke off his relations with his old friend Zorrilla. In 1870 he was appointed Minister of State, and the monarch afterward declared himself in favor of the monarchy, and continued to be Minister of State and Minister of the Interior during the brief reign of King Amadeus, also becoming President of the Council.

Under the Provisional Government, Sagasta was Minister of the Interior in 1874, Sagasta was Minister of the Interior and President of the Council of Ministers. After the re-establishment of the monarchy, Sagasta for a time withdrew from public life, but in June, 1875, he gave in his adherence to the cause of Alfonso XII and endeavored to form a Liberal Constitution. He was, however, successfully opposed by the monarchist party, and the administration formed by Martínez de Campos and Canovas del Castillo.

When a new Liberal Government was formed, Señor Sagasta joined it, and the Cabinet of Señor Canovas del Castillo was overthrown early in 1881.

Señor Sagasta, who, by a coalition, came into power, Sagasta's Ministry remained in office until October, 1883, when he resigned. He was succeeded by that of the late Señor Canovas del Castillo, who, in 1885, his Ministry resigned, and the hands of the monarchist party were succeeded by General Azcarra.

The advent of Señor Sagasta to power undoubtedly marks the beginning of a new era in the history of Spain, and a much more liberal policy upon the part of Spain toward Cuba.

Señor Sagasta, who, apparently, is to succeed Captain-General Weyler in Cuba, was formerly Governor-General of the Canary Islands, and subsequently Minister of the Interior and President of the Council of Ministers. After the re-establishment of the monarchy, Sagasta for a time withdrew from public life, but in June, 1875, he gave in his adherence to the cause of Alfonso XII and endeavored to form a Liberal Constitution. He was, however, successfully opposed by the monarchist party, and the administration formed by Martínez de Campos and Canovas del Castillo.

When a new Liberal Government was formed, Señor Sagasta joined it, and the Cabinet of Señor Canovas del Castillo was overthrown early in 1881.

Señor Sagasta, who, by a coalition, came into power, Sagasta's Ministry remained in office until October, 1883, when he resigned. He was succeeded by that of the late Señor Canovas del Castillo, who, in 1885, his Ministry resigned, and the hands of the monarchist party were succeeded by General Azcarra.

The advent of Señor Sagasta to power undoubtedly marks the beginning of a new era in the history of Spain, and a much more liberal policy upon the part of Spain toward Cuba.

Señor Sagasta, who, apparently, is to succeed Captain-General Weyler in Cuba, was formerly Governor-General of the Canary Islands, and subsequently Minister of the Interior and President of the Council of Ministers. After the re-establishment of the monarchy, Sagasta for a time withdrew from public life, but in June, 1875, he gave in his adherence to the cause of Alfonso XII and endeavored to form a Liberal Constitution. He was, however, successfully opposed by the monarchist party, and the administration formed by Martínez de Campos and Canovas del Castillo.

When a new Liberal Government was formed, Señor Sagasta joined it, and the Cabinet of Señor Canovas del Castillo was overthrown early in 1881.

Señor Sagasta, who, by a coalition, came into power, Sagasta's Ministry remained in office until October, 1883, when he resigned. He was succeeded by that of the late Señor Canovas del Castillo, who, in 1885, his Ministry resigned, and the hands of the monarchist party were succeeded by General Azcarra.

The advent of Señor Sagasta to power undoubtedly marks the beginning of a new era in the history of Spain, and a much more liberal policy upon the part of Spain toward Cuba.

Señor Sagasta, who, apparently, is to succeed Captain-General Weyler in Cuba, was formerly Governor-General of the Canary Islands, and subsequently Minister of the Interior and President of the Council of Ministers. After the re-establishment of the monarchy, Sagasta for a time withdrew from public life, but in June, 1875, he gave in his adherence to the cause of Alfonso XII and endeavored to form a Liberal Constitution. He was, however, successfully opposed by the monarchist party, and the administration formed by Martínez de Campos and Canovas del Castillo.

When a new Liberal Government was formed, Señor Sagasta joined it, and the Cabinet of Señor Canovas del Castillo was overthrown early in 1881.

Señor Sagasta, who, by a coalition, came into power, Sagasta's Ministry remained in office until October, 1883, when he resigned. He was succeeded by that of the late Señor Canovas del Castillo, who, in 1885, his Ministry resigned, and the hands of the monarchist party were succeeded by General Azcarra.

The advent of Señor Sagasta to power undoubtedly marks the beginning of a new era in the history of Spain, and a much more liberal policy upon the part of Spain toward Cuba.

Señor Sagasta, who, apparently, is to succeed Captain-General Weyler in Cuba, was formerly Governor-General of the Canary Islands, and subsequently Minister of the Interior and President of the Council of Ministers. After the re-establishment of the monarchy, Sagasta for a time withdrew from public life, but in June, 1875, he gave in his adherence to the cause of Alfonso XII and endeavored to form a Liberal Constitution. He was, however, successfully opposed by the monarchist party, and the administration formed by Martínez de Campos and Canovas del Castillo.

When a new Liberal Government was formed, Señor Sagasta joined it, and the Cabinet of Señor Canovas del Castillo was overthrown early in 1881.

Señor Sagasta, who, by a coalition, came into power, Sagasta's Ministry remained in office until October, 1883, when he resigned. He was succeeded by that of the late Señor Canovas del Castillo, who, in 1885, his Ministry resigned, and the hands of the monarchist party were succeeded by General Azcarra.

The advent of Señor Sagasta to power undoubtedly marks the beginning of a new era in the history of Spain, and a much more liberal policy upon the part of Spain toward Cuba.

Señor Sagasta, who, apparently, is to succeed Captain-General Weyler in Cuba, was formerly Governor-General of the Canary Islands, and subsequently Minister of the Interior and President of the Council of Ministers. After the re-establishment of the monarchy, Sagasta for a time withdrew from public life, but in June, 1875, he gave in his adherence to the cause of Alfonso XII and endeavored to form a Liberal Constitution. He was, however, successfully opposed by the monarchist party, and the administration formed by Martínez de Campos and Canovas del Castillo.

NEW GREEK CABINET FORMED. M. ZAIMIS THE PREMIER—THE BREACH WITH DELYANNIS'S FOLLOWERS WIDENING.

Athens, Oct. 2.—It is semi-officially announced that the new Greek Cabinet has been constituted as follows:

M. ZAIMIS, President of the Council of Ministers and Minister of the Interior.

GEN. KARAGIANNIS, Minister of War.

PRINCE MAVROPOULOS, formerly Minister of Greece at Constantinople, Minister for Foreign Affairs.

M. STAMATIADIS, Minister of Marine.

M. PANAGIOTAKIS, Governor of the National Bank and Minister of Justice.

It was officially announced later that M. Zaimis, the President of the Council, would assume the portfolio of the Foreign Office instead of that of the Interior; that M. Toman would accept the post of Minister of Justice, and Minister of Marine and Interior; M. Kolokotronis, of Minister of the Interior, and that M. Panagiotopoulos would act as Minister of Public Instruction.

At a meeting of his supporters held at the call of M. Delyannis, the prominent persons present refused to enter the Ministry. At a meeting of another faction of Delyannists it was decided to support any steps taken by the Ministry, and to hasten the evacuation of Thessaly by the Turks. The attitude assumed by M. Delyannis meets with general disapproval.

The split with ex-Premier Delyannis's followers is widening. M. Delyannis has issued a manifesto disavowing Premier Zaimis, who was formerly a Delyannist.

FOUR YOUNG WOMEN DROWNED.
THEIR ESCORTS UPSET THE BOAT FOR FUN, BUT SAVED THEIR OWN LIVES.

Hamilton, Ala., Oct. 2.—While returning from a party here late last night six people in a boat were thrown into the Chattahoochee River, and Misses Lizzie Smith, Belle Key, Mary Swearingen and Ella Phillips were drowned. Their escorts, Robert and John Wright, brothers, who caused the boat to be upset, were rescued, and their own lives. Feeling is so bitter against the two men that they have left town.

THIRCE ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.
ROYCE, WHO KILLED HIMSELF AT THE GRAND UNION, WELL KNOWN IN SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, Oct. 2.—Clark E. K. Royce, who committed suicide yesterday at the Grand Union Hotel in New-York, was well known here, and had made attempts to commit suicide before.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the California Veterans' Home Association, but a shortage of over $200 being discovered in his accounts, he was discharged and indicted for felony. While the investigation was pending Royce registered at a hotel here under an assumed name.

AT THE MERCY OF THE STORM FOUR MEN SEEN IN THE RIGGING OF A WRECKED SCHOONER.

TWO OF THEM THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN WASHED INTO THE SEA—OCEAN CITY LIFE
SAVERS UNABLE TO REACH THEM.

Sea Life City, Oct. 2 (Special).—Early this morning the Ocean City life-saving crew discovered the wreck of a large two-masted schooner, name unknown, about two miles at sea, off Great Egg Harbor Inlet. Far up in the rigging of the foremast the watchers on the shore could see the figures of four men clinging to the ropes. The vessels' decks were level with the sea, and wave after wave washed her from stem to stern.

The wrecked schooner went driving down the beach before the gale. When opposite Ocean City, those who were watching from the shore were horrified to see a tremendous wave strike the vessel and partly capsize her. For a few minutes a heavy mist hid the wreck from view, and when she was again sighted only two of the men clinging to the foremast could be seen. It is feared that two of them were washed into the sea and drowned when the wave struck the ship.

The surf is running so high that the life-savers say any attempt to launch the lifeboat would not only prove futile, but foolhardy. Hopes are entertained that the surfmen will be able to launch their boat on the next low tide, and that the surviving men on the schooner will be washed into the sea before scum can reach them.

The sea shows no signs of becoming calmer, and unless the weather moderates the vessel cannot be reached until to-morrow. The life-saving crews along the coast have been told to keep a sharp lookout for any bodies that may be washed ashore.

The vessel is lumber-laden and of about three hundred tons register. She lies in the same position where she struck, her anchors having evidently broken loose, holding her there. The storm now raging is the worst of the year.

COMING BACK FROM ALASKA.
STORIES OF RETURNING FORTUNE-HUNTERS—
FAMINE PRICES ON THE YUKON.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 2.—The steamer Farallon arrived here today from Skagway, Alaska. The Farallon had on board a number of prospectors, among them a man named Louis Long, direct from Dawson City, which place he left on August 26, coming out on the Dalton trail. He stopped at Juneau. In an interview Long said:

"When I left Dawson the stores had stopped selling supplies and restaurants had closed because they could get nothing to cook. I believe that provisions were scarce, although many of the miners are leaving there. In my opinion two hundred or three hundred men will come out over the Dalton trail within the next few weeks, while a great many others are going down by St. Michaels."

"It was a great mistake in trading companies to bring so much whiskey up the river instead of supplies. Before we left Dawson nine cattle had been driven in and four of them butchered."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

Long said he and his partner, who was worth $150 a round, while soup was at 25 cents a bowl. I paid $100 as quickly as possible. I brought back provisions, the entire pack of each miner, blankets and all, weighing about sixty pounds. We came up the river to Five Fingers and then out over the Dalton trail. We crossed the summit on September 21 in a snowstorm, and had Indian guides to show us the way."

CITIZENS UNION TICKET. THOSE NOW SAID TO BE FAVORED AS CANDIDATES.

CHARLES S. FAIRCHILD FOR CONTROLLER AND MAYOR WURSTER OF BROOKLYN FOR PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL.

The joint committee of the Citizens Union, composed of five representatives from each borough in the territory of the enlarged New-York, met yesterday morning at the downtown headquarters, No. 32 Liberty-st. The report of the conference committee, consisting of members of the Citizens Union and the Brooklyn Committee of Fifty, who were said to have decided upon J. Hansen Rhoades, of Manhattan, and Edward M. Shepard, of Brooklyn, for the offices of Controller and President of the Council respectively, was considered. Upon the adjournment of the meeting, after a session of about three hours, it was reported that the nominations proposed by the conference committee had not been ratified.

Later it was learned that the committee had favored the nomination of the following candidates:

CITY TICKET.
CHARLES S. FAIRCHILD, of Manhattan, for Controller.

FREDERICK W. WURSTER, of Brooklyn, for President of the Municipal Council.

NEW-YORK COUNTY TICKET.
EDWARD M. SHEPARD, for Sheriff.

WALLACE MACFARLANE, for District-Attorney.

JOHN R. PANN'S, for Register.

Justices VAN BRUNT and ANDREWS, to be re-nominated for the Supreme Court.

It was also said that the committee had decided to recommend the nomination of Robert J. Hoguet for President of the Borough of Manhattan.

At a meeting of the conference committee of the German-American Reform Union, held yesterday afternoon at No. 119 Nassau-st., the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That while the conference committee of the German-American Reform Union has no candidates to propose from among the members of the organization for nomination on the ticket, such ticket, to be satisfactory, must be a truly representative one, composed not only of independent Republicans, but of the best elements of both parties, Democrats as well as Republicans.

OVERTURES WILL BE CONSIDERED.
BUT MR. PLATT SAYS THE REPUBLICANS WILL MAKE NO FURTHER EFFORT TO SECURE
UNION-AN APPEAL FOR THE TICKET.

The Republican City Committee met yesterday in the headquarters at No. 1 Madison-ave, and twenty-six of the thirty-eight members appointed by President Quinn were present half an hour before noon. Cornelius Van Cott was too ill to attend the meeting, and General Collis was the other absentee. Mr. Quinn presided, and George R. Manchester was made the secretary of the committee. Members of the committee who are residents of Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond were made members of separate finance committees for those boroughs. The committee remained in session for two hours and adopted a declaration intended to leave no doubt that General Tracy is to remain in the field as the Republican candidate for Mayor. Following is the declaration:

Recognizing that the first obligation of every citizen of a free government in the greater city of New-York is to the cause of united action against Tammany Hall at the coming election, the Republican party has spared no effort to bring into the city a large number of the best elements of the community which might be united in the interest of a successful campaign and a sound and patriotic government.

That these efforts have failed is due solely to the opposition of the Citizens Union, which has persistently refused, and still refuses, to consider any other than the candidacy for Mayor of one certain individual, whose candidacy has been proved in the preliminary canvass not to be a uniting force among the friends of good government, whose nomination by the Republican party has been rendered impossible by the acts of himself and his associates, and whose personal animosities and relations of his own conduct is a chief source of discord and disunion. The Republican City Committee has, therefore, resolved, That the candidates nominated by the Republican City Convention be:

For Mayor, HENRY GEORGE, P. TRACY.
For Controller, ASHLEY P. FITCH.
For President of the Municipal Council, R. ROSS APPLETON.

Mr. Quinn said the field until the polls will remain open to the night of Election Day, and every elector who, upon any ground, is opposed to the restoration of Tammany Hall and Bryanism, is urged to give his prompt and hearty support to these, the only anti-Tammany candidates who can be elected.

Mr. Quinn and other members of the committee said after the meeting that there would be no further conferences with other political organizations and no conference with any representatives of the Citizens Union, but that the Republican organization would go ahead and nominate straight Republican candidates on all the tickets still to be named. They declared that the only hope for defeating Tammany was in the election of Republican candidates, and that the campaign would be conducted with that purpose in view.

General Tracy said yesterday: "Any talk about my withdrawal in favor of Mr. Low is nonsense. It is evident that people who have placed any faith in such talk have not read my speech before the Republican City Convention. The Republican campaign will begin as soon as all the Republican candidates are nominated, and then I expect to devote my entire time to work in the campaign."

Mr. Tracy said that he would not be further attempts by the Republican organization to secure union against Tammany, but any overtures to us will be considered. General Tracy is in the field to stay until Election Day, and he will be elected."

THE HENRY GEORGE MOVEMENT.
A CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE APPOINTED—TUESDAY NIGHT'S MASS-MEETING.

A campaign committee, composed of representatives of the different organizations which have declared in favor of Henry George for Mayor, has been formed, and in a few days a plan of campaign will be formulated.

Henry George will be at a big mass-meeting to be held in Cooper Union on Tuesday night next, to be held in Cooper Union on Tuesday night next. The officers of the meeting and those who will address it are: Alfred B. Crutcher, who will formally inform Mr. George of his nomination, have not yet been decided upon.

ROCHESTER'S MAYORALTY CANDIDATE HAS BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

Rochester, Oct. 2 (Special).—Though the Democrats have not yet placed in nomination their standard-bearer in the municipal battle, the campaign may be said to be fully on. Mr. Warner, the present Mayor, will be conceded a renomination without contest. The Republican ticket, headed by the idea on the part of the leadership of making an aggressive campaign, and to give every evidence that their purposes in this respect will be carried out. Mr. Lewis, besides serving in the Assembly and sitting in the Constitutional Convention, was for some years a member of the Rochester City Council, and as president of the latter was yielded by George W. Aldridge to assume the duties of the office. He was appointed by Governor Morton. Mr. Lewis has had a great deal of official experience, and he is well known in the city. He is a good record. It is not generally known that Mr. Lewis's nomination, but his candidacy is generally acceptable, and has made for the Rochester Normal Republican majority in Rochester being between 300 and 400. Mr. Lewis's election is regarded as a foregone conclusion.

HAD TO RUN FROM A WOMAN LIVELY TIMES IN IRWIN C. STUMP'S OFFICE IN BROAD-ST.

POLICEMEN FORCED TO DRAG A VIRAGO, WHO
MR. STUMP SAYS IS TRYING TO FORCE
HIM TO MARRY HER, THROUGH THE STREETS TO THE POLICE STATION.

A well-dressed and rather good-looking woman of middle age, walked into the offices of Stump & Child, on the fifth floor of the Mills Building, in Broad-st., yesterday afternoon, and, stamping her foot, excitedly inquired: "Where's that man Stump?"

Irwin C. Stump, one of the partners in the firm, hearing the voice from the adjoining room quickly grabbed his hat and left the office by the door, calling as he ran: "Keep her there 'till I get out." He sought refuge in a friend's quarters in a building near by.

The woman in the mean time proceeded to make things lively in the Mills Building. A man named Maloney, who had apparently been employed by Stump & Child, on the fifth floor of the Mills Building, in Broad-st., yesterday afternoon, and, stamping her foot, excitedly inquired: "Where's that man Stump?"

"Don't you dare to touch me! Don't you dare!" the woman cried, but Maloney pushed her out into the hall. There she continued to rave until a throng assembled in the corridor.

"I'll not leave here until I attend to some business I have with Stump," the woman declared emphatically. "He knows what I want."

All efforts to get her to leave the building peacefully failed. A telephone message was sent to Police Headquarters. Detective Leonard was sent down as quickly as possible, and with Policeman Maher, of the Old Slip Station, hurried to the fifth floor of the building. The woman was still shouting and screaming.

"Madam," said the detective, "you must leave this building. Take my advice and raise no further disturbance, but go quietly."

"You please to mind your own business, sir," retorted the woman